The following emails were sent from Thomas Retzlaff to his daughter Brittany Retzlaff. Brittany has a permanent restraining order in place against Thomas Retzlaff, and Mr. Retzlaff has violated that restraining order hundreds of times since it was issued on July 29th, 2014. Mr. McGibney and his family also have a permanent restraining order in place against Mr. Retzlaff, which he has violated over 1,000 times. There currently is a warrant for Thomas Retzlaff's arrest out of Santa Clara County, California. These emails prove beyond a shadow of a doubt the deep connection between Thomas Retzlaff, Attorney Jeffrey Dorrell and Neal Rauhauser. Mr. Retzlaff admits numerous times that he is the financier of Rauhauser's counterclaim, which was taken on contingency by Attorney Jeffrey Dorrell.

Subject: lawsuit update

By the way, your "friend" suffered a terrible defeat in Texas last Wednesday. He filed a lawsuit against me and about 5 other people. Someone who has a rich father paid for a lawyer on behalf of one of the defendants to file a response and to seek sanctions for violating our rights to free speech. Your friend tried to immediately dismiss the lawsuit and make it go away, but the judge wouldn't let him. The man with the rich father has paid out nearly $65,000 for this lawyer in Houston. He is one of the top First Amendment lawyers in Texas and is very well known in the newspaper industry. So my guess is that someone with ties to the newspaper industry either knew this lawyer or heard about him and then got him the money needed to fight. Since I know how you like to talk to this fool in California I won't mention anything further. But it is funny as hell. Anyways the judge will make his ruling on June 11th and I will be there to laugh my ass off and collect some money.

Sanctions are likely to be $100,000 or more as the law is very clear and the lawsuit he filed against me was very bullshit. Once we get done in Texas the next stop will be California and I am going to pound this little faggot like a drum and take everything he owns. I have already lined up a guy named Karl Olson, he is THE TOP first amendment lawyer in California and, again, another friend of the newspaper industry.

This man was an idiot for fucking with me. I took on the state of Texas all by myself from my prison cell and won my release – and the release of many thousands of others. I have filed and won countless other lawsuits against some of the biggest companies in the US. AS YOU WELL KNOW. So do you honestly think that some revenge porn website owner and his one jew lawyer can beat me when the whole of the Texas Attorney General's Office and Parole Board tried to keep me in prison?

Subject: Mom's pic

A picture speaks a thousand words, and mom told me that you saw the photo I sent you of her and I in bed. Why would something like that surprise you? She and I have been together for nearly 40 years we've known each other. What she says to you, and to others, is far different than how she is with me, as you know.

As things stand right now you will not be allowed back home or anywhere near the house. I will bring enormous amounts of pressure on your mother and do whatever I need to do to get her to see things my way. I mean this Brittany.

I will do whatever it takes to keep you and that boy away.

The man who claimed to be your friend and savior I just found out right this very minute has suffered an enormous defeat. The judge in Texas is likely to order sanctions in the amount of $250,000, plus $67,000 in attorney fees for filing that bullshit lawsuit against me and some other people.

Right now his websites have been shut down. All of his advertisers have been run off, his twitter account banned and removed - and he blames it all on little old me, your daddy. Lol Guess he shouldn't have posted your pictures on his website and tried to charge me $200 to remove him.

But now it appears that you have betrayed me, but you have also betrayed the family as well. That I cannot tolerate. So for your own good, under no circumstances are you to return to the US. It will be hell for you if you do.

That hacker bunch I told you about? When you decided to work with that revenge porn man you name and personal information got into the hands of some seriously fucked up people who will stalk you and harass the fuck out of you and any place you try to work at because you joined their enemy.

I already found your SSN and pictures on hacker website along with Leigh Ann and Eddie. These hacker types are ridiculous and evil and don't care.

When you joined that man and his company you became enemies of a huge number of people. If you do not want to talk to me and work things out, do not set foot in the US. No piece of paper will be able to help you. But you always have the choice of calling.

Subject: my attorney fees

Curious as to how much this case has cost? Exactly $66,955. Yes, you heard me. This is how much it has cost to fight your internet hacker friend's lawsuit in Texas. When your grandfather took his South American cruise last month, you want to know how much that cost? About $30 grand. And when he took his trip to Russia the month before that. Yeah, that's right. So this lawsuit has cost the equivalent of Boppie taking just two cruises out of the dozen or more trips he makes every year. Do you think he minds? Not a bit! Who the fuck spends $66,955 in attorney fees if they don't think they have a damn good chance at winning, and winning big?? Ha ha ha

You silly bitch, you think that by telling your mom It's her own fault for having her and Collin's Instagram open that it's okay for people to take their photos to stalk and harass them? Or that just because mom's home address is online (WHICH IT FUCKING ISN'T YOU FUCKING MORON!) that it's okay for people to post it on a stalker's website so she can be harassed. And I guess you're also cool with the fact that your grandfather's info was posted by James, too. But you're cool with that, right? Maybe the next time you get raped it will be your fault for wearing thong panties and that short skirt you like! In fact, your friend, whom you call "James", went on Twitter the other day and said to someone "Well Bitch, you're so-called "rape" was YOUR OWN FAULT. Keep your legs closed next time!!" And, FYI, Collin's Instagram wasn't open – it was hacked. And how do you explain the fact that it was this James follow or one of his friends that bought a website up in your brother's name?

I also see that you've told your new friends that story about hidden cameras in the bathroom. You stupid, stupid little girl. You don't think I already have that covered? You don't think I remember that you told your brother like 4 DIFFERENT stories about how these pictures came to be? Yeah, dummy. I already secured a written affidavit from your brother. Plus he will be coming to court to testify for me if needed. Same with your mom. Now just how well do you think that will go over in court? Your own brother and mother testifying against you? You're a fucking lunatic with a history of mental illness who sold all of her property, ran off to Peru, married some boy in exchange for money, and joined a crazy religious cult. Compared to your own brother testifying against you and that you have told different stories about this and how you like to lie a lot. THERE WERE NO HIDDEN CAMERAS YOU SILLY LITTLE BITCH! Your nude photos are clearly posed for. I can see you looking straight into the camera and smiling. Oh but that's fake, right? What the fuck would I need hidden cameras for when I have seen you naked THOUSANDS of times even grown up? It's not like you've ever been shy around me, kid. Nor was it ever a big deal.

Did you think that just because this guy files some papers in court and says my name on twitter that I was going to go and run away? Come on, dude, you know me better than that! You think this is the first guy like this that I have come across before?

By the way, the fact that you married that boy FOR MONEY is why his Visa got turned down and why he is on the list keeping him out.

And how does hidden cameras in the bathroom explain the fact that sex videos OF YOU FUCKING were posted as well? Oh, I guess I made those as well, right?

You make a deal with the Devil, don't be surprised when you get burned. A guy who owns a revenge porn website is NOT your friend and he cannot be trusted. And if you don't believe me, then ask some of the 10,000 or so girls JUST LIKE YOU that are posted on his website. In fact, when we all go to court (assuming I even bother to show up, and assuming that this guy & his company are still around and didn't lose all their money in Texas), I will ask you that very question. How do you explain your involvement with a revenge porn website.

You stupid, stupid little girl. You and this retard think you're dealing with some kind of amateur? I've been doing this shit for nearly 20 years and I've won hundreds of thousands of dollars – all on my own against some of the biggest and best law firms in TX. You don't think I know what the fuck I'm doing? And now I have one of the Number One 1st Amendment lawyers in TX on my side, as well as THE TOP 1st Amendment lawyer in California waiting, you think that faggot McGibney and Leiderman can beat me?

And what will be left of you and your life, whether here or in Peru, as a result?

One way or the other, kid, you're going to get fucked. Whether it's by me or by him or by someone else, you will get it in the end. You decided to jump in the mess, don't be surprised when the folks in Peru start getting emails and phone calls.

But whatever. Brittany does what she does and damn the consequences, right?

I strongly suspect that the LAST TIME you will ever see your brother again is in a court room with you facing off against your dad with him at my side. If you think you can live with that, fine by me.

Dad

I lied to you about something very important.

I lied to you about the amount of attorney fees being sought against your Internet stalker friend. Its not $66,955. Its more like $100,000. Yeah, that's right.

Also, I was wrong about the amount of sanctions we are seeking. Its not $250,000. Its $1,000,000. Yeah. One million dollars.

The Texas attorney just filed his final brief with the court just minutes ago.

Hahahahahahahaha

This clown is fucked!!! By me.

The judge rules tomorrow or Friday.

$98,187.36 is the amount of attorney fees spent thus far in this lawsuit.

You think this kind of money would have been spent if we didn't think we had an excellent chance. Of winning?

Just curious, if I had given you even one tenth of that amount (or $9,800) how much better would your life be right now? You could actually live in a place that has heat and air conditioning, not to mention reliable running water. And you wouldn't be stuck walking up and down six flights of stairs with no elevator.

You could get a car. Or even be able to see a doctor (a good doctor). Or have nice clothes or good food to eat.

You see where I'm getting at here? But for the choices you made, your life could be markedly better right now. But instead this money gets spent on an attorney in Texas on some stupid, and meaningless, lawsuit filed by your friend and supposed savior.

$98,187.36 and one million dollars in sanctions. Hahahahahahaha

This is the second time he has been banned.

An anti-bullying advocate who gets banned for bullying isn't funny or ironic in the least, is it?

And soon he'll be writing out a million dollars check. Hahahahaha

Dear stupid bitch,

Let me ask you a question that a stupid bitch like you can probably answer. When a man who owns a revenge pornography website buys up a website in the name of both your mom and your dad and your brother and in your name, is that a good thing or a bad thing? Is he really doing this because he is a kind person who just wants to help people? Or does he do it because he has a history of doing it to at least 17 other people so that he can harass and defame them?

This James person you claim is someone that you can trust who told you that he is not interested in hurting your family, just me (which makes it okay, I guess)? Right? So then why buy up websites in the names of your mom and brother?

And why did he buy up a website in the name of my attorney in Texas and then go onto Twitter calling him a rapist homosexual pedophile and say he was going to harass him and all of his clients?

The attorney is asking for one million dollars in court sanctions against your friend. Do attorneys normally ask for $1,000,000 in sanctions against "nice people"?

You are a motherfucking cunt and as soon as you set one foot in the United States you will suffer great punishment. I absolutely mean it and you know that there isn't a god damn thing that anyone can do to stop me. If you doubt me, then do it. I fucking dare you to, kid. In fact, I double dare you!! You will suffer greatly for this, Brittany. I guarantee it.

You claim to your mother that you are not involved in this and that you haven't been helping that stalker guy. Well the time for proving that is right now kid. On Monday something big is going to happen that will personally effect you and that boy, and once it is done, it cannot be undone. So if you have got something to say to me, now is the time.

You're stalker friend, the man who lists YOU as being an employee of his company, personally harassed & tried to blackmail one of the biggest and best known attorneys in Texas. The fall out against anyone associated with him – such as you, is going to be ridiculous and terrible, and ridiculously terrible. You will personally get fucked up as a result of this. I guarantee it 100%.

I went to a lot of time, trouble, and money to arrange things just so in this lawsuit, and in the lawsuits yet to come. And it's going to be spectacular. But you chose the wrong side. In fact, any time you go against family it's the wrong side.

The clock is ticking for you, Brittany.

Well bitch your little Internet stalker friends have been awfully quiet the past few days. I wonder why? Usually those cunts have a lot to say.

Judgment Day is tomorrow it looks like as that is the last day the judge has to rule before the matter goes to the court of appeals. The Houston Police have been busy with their blackmail investigation of McGibney. Seems the FBI has already been looking at him for some other matters.

You really picked a good guy to hook up with. AM looking forward to reading his obituary.

Dad

Well in just a few short hours we will know the results of the Texas lawsuit. You know to be perfectly honest, I don't really give a shit about the money. Your internet stalker friend has none. I've been over his credit reports with a fine tooth comb and he is in debt up to his eye balls. I think your brother does a better job of managing his money then this clown does.

Either way, I have won. And all it cost me was about one-third of all the McDonald's stock that I own that was given to me by your grandmother when she died. So it's not like its real money to me anyways! When she bought that stock it was at a fraction of the value that it is now, and it's not been touched in 35 years. In fact, all of the different stocks she left to me, besides the McDonald's, has just been sitting there going up or down in value. You know how Boppie checks his stocks practically every day? I just look at mine whenever I get one of those quarterly statements in the mail and I allow the dividends to roll over, so I don't even see the money anyways. That's the way that you should manage your stocks; you just buy what you buy and let it sit. Don't fuck around with it or stare at it like a pot of water you want to boil. That way you're not tempted to do something stupid or reactionary. But this McGibney guy, he came from a poor family and he has no clue as to how to manage money properly. According to that website that posted his financial history he's been nothing but a total fuck up ever since high school. You know he borrowed a bunch of money from his sister and never paid her back, he just filed for bankruptcy instead? Screwed her and one of his friend's over. Plus, he stole money from a Marine Corp charity fund, too! This is the man you claim is a 'good person who just wants to help people', a man who stole from his own family and from a charity!

So no matter how the judge rules tomorrow, I'm fine with it. But I have heard that your stalker friend has been in a nervous rage all week long, what with him losing all his twitter accounts and this court business. The guy actually had the temerity to think that, just because he tweets my name or files a lawsuit, I was going to run and hide. I fucking live in court. And seeing my name and all of his ridiculous allegations on twitter, come on dude, get real! Like I give a shit what some faggots on the internet think. "Oh a scary man said my name on twitter. I better go run and hide. Oh, I'm going to be sued. Oh no!!" hahahahhahahahaha

What a stupid punk!

So what did I do today? I played golf and took my new dog for a swim in the pool. Then I ate a piece of chicken, played some video games, and read a book while listening to your mom on the phone yapping about her new living room floor or some such bullshit. And now I write you a little note cuz I was thinking about you.

What will I do tomorrow? I don't know. Sleep till around 11 or 12, go for a swim. Oh and maybe see a movie. In short, it will just be another regular day for me. Nothing that happens in Texas is going to change my life one way or the other. When I hear how the judge decides I might have a good laugh or shake my head in bewilderment. But after about 5 minutes I'll forget about it and go back to doing what I was doing. Your friend, however, will be stuck with the results for a very long time to come. Yes indeed.

You understand that your mother is not as stupid as you think she is, right? In fact, I doubt she is as dumb as I think she is. But if it turns out that you are lying to her (which I honestly believe is the case here) she will hate you forever. You understand this?

You know that I ALWAYS discover the truth eventually. You are totally incapable of hiding things from me as I always find out sooner or later. Same with your brother. I created you after all, so I know exactly how you think and what you do – often times even before you do your own self!

As I mentioned to you before, this TX lawsuit has cost me a ton of money. I am glad to spend it. But you are the one who has lost out here. After all, just think that if I had given you even 25% of what this case has cost how much of a difference would that have made in your life and in Daniel's life? A much better place to live. A car. Some financial security. (Not to mention the support of your parents.) All the things that you will need if you hope to succeed in that marriage.

But you have always been a very short sighted person and you never think ahead or for the future. It is always in the "now".

You will be destroyed because of this and there isn't a damn thing that this guy can do to stop it or save you. I am going to do whatever I want to do and there isn't anything he can do to stop it. He can file a million lawsuits in a million courts. I simply do not care. Words on a piece of paper do not impress me. In any event, he is the one facing court sanctions, not me. You were a fool to involve yourself with him. And thanks to all the news articles, you are known to millions of people around the world as the girl who has sex with her daddy and is a whore.

Hope it was worth it Brittany.

I just read a news article about you on the viaviewfiles.wordpress.com website. I hope you realize by now that this man has been lying to you and making promises to you that he simply cannot keep.

I have fronted some money to one of the people he has sued in that lawsuit against me for an attorney. That attorney has filed a motion for sanctions against McGibney in federal court. As you know, this retard is suing me and a bunch of others in state court in Texas as well as in federal court. I am paying for the lawyer in Texas. This other lady only needed a little bit of help so she could get her own attorney.

That attorney has filed a motion in federal court for sanctions. McGibney has to respond in 3 weeks and the judge will hold a hearing in early September.

He lied about being able to help you. If you read that article you will see exactly why.

He also put pictures of your mom up on his website and harassed her. That proof is also on that BV Files website.

McGibney controls Chesterville and he personally controls what goes on it. The pictures of Ur mom was done by him and he allowed it to go up.

Besides, think about it for a moment. If I was gonna put Ur mom on a website like that I would have had some VERY embarrassing pictures I could use, right? U know what I mean, too.

So if this James guy tries to tell u it was me that posted Ur mother, u know he's lying cuz he decides personally what goes on it.

He is also lying about the things he claims he can do for u.

According to that website he has already been caught committing perjury in court!!

He can't even save himself, Brittany. So how can he save you?

It's all lies he has told you. Every bit of it.

Asunto: texas lawsuit comment

Dear Ms. Retzlaff,

Your father's attorney recently filed the attached document with the court in Texas that was just sent to us at the BV Files website.

Also it appears that your father has filed a lawsuit against McGibney attorney Jay Leiderman in Arizona for falsely calling him a convicted sex offender.

We are doing articles on each of these and are wondering if you would please care to comment? We are also curious as to how and why you became involved in the recent restraining order case in San Jose and what effect this has had on your family.

According to your father's attorney any California restraining order is unenforceable in foreign countries and out of state. Additionally, according to the San Jose Police Dept., your father has recently been cleared of any wrongdoing with regards to McGibney's death threat claims and that his attorney will be filing a motion for new trial in the restraining order case as a result. What say you?

best regards,

Dean Anderson

Subject: attorney harassment

Dear Ms. Retzlaff,

The Texas attorney just filed the enclosed brief with the court hours ago complaining of yet more harassment by your boss James McGibney and we want to know if you support the actions of your employer in this regard. As I told you before we are putting together an article about you and your dad and all these court cases and would like your comment.

Someone also told us that today your father filed his motion for new trial in the restraining order case and that the judge will be reconsidering the order and scheduling a hearing before the end of September. We have spoken to your father's attorneys by phone as they support us at the BV Files. We have been completely assured that the restraining order is of no effect outside of California despite the claims of Jay Leiderman. They were all very clear in this regard and are confident that the order will be overturned either now or on appeal. Even if it didn't it is only valid within the state of California.

McGibney has created several Twitter accounts to harass this attorney and your father. http://twitter.com/Ped0Files

What do you have to say about this? How does this fit in with your religious views?

Our website gets over 8000 views a day now with over 1.5 million total views. A lot of people want to know about you Ms Retzlaff and what is going on here.

Oh and could you please tell us why James McGibney told your mother that he is being forced to move out of his house because your dad somehow got a hold of the gate code to get into his neighborhood and that your dad passed it onto the Aryan Brotherhood so they can go kill McGibney? Why wouldn't McGibney just call 911 instead? Why tell your mother?

And do you honestly believe this could even possible be true? As you will see from our website, McGibney has made claims that all sorts of people are trying to kill him and send him death threats. yet no one has ever been arrested. Strange, isn't it? maybe the cops in San Jose just don't know how to investigate things like this.

Best regards,

p.s.

I am certain that James McGibney has told you that I am really your father. But if you take even the briefest look at our website, you will see that McGibney has told a lot of people a lot of things that just simply are not true. So why should this be any different? Just like he claims the FBI and police are after us. Its all bullshit. Seriously. I am not your father and your father has no role in our website. i am certain that he posts comments, but then so do 1000s of other people. We have no way of knowing who is who.

So how was your weekend, birthday girl? Did you get any nice presents?

I had a busy weekend. My attorney just finished our appellate brief in Texas and it will be filed tomorrow. It is 31 pages long. There will be a hearing for oral argument on Oct 21st in Ft Worth. Your stalker friend is dead meat. I found a very recent court case that will blow their arguments to bits.

This Internet stalker clown thinks that something special is going to happen tomorrow. He doesn't know the half of it! Oh and it appears his attorney is in very poor financial condition. I saw his credit reports last week and the dude and his wife are in a very precarious position. Oh and the attorney he hired to represent him in my lawsuit here in AZ quit the case. I sent that AZ attny an email and told him all about Leiderman's and McGibney's stalking activities, website harassment and such. I called him later and he was very upset that his client had lied to him. He told me he had no idea about any of this - they told him I was the bad guy and such!

So he immediately quit the case.

I got three Big Things that are lined up for this week. So things are going very well for your dad.

Of course that won't stop the stalker man from making more false promises to you about how he is going to help you or how the police are after me and stuff. This man just can't help himself with his constant lies and dramatics.

I'm not even in AZ. But whatever. This guy is a lying sack of shit and he is dead meat. The moment he first said my name on twitter he was dead, and so was his company. Only he just didn't know it yet. But that's what you get for fucking with me - or my family.

Mom had no luck at Bingo. But she had fun, so that's ok. That stuff iis boring as hell. But it makes her happy so that's ok. Do they have Bingo in Peru? I remember taking you when you were little.

I miss you.

Dad

Because of a brother and sister named Calkins, who have been fighting each other for years, I have won my case in Texas.

I want you to remember that it was I who told you of them, and when it was I told you, because that may be interesting for in the future.

So here it is filed yesterday. Check it out and see if you can figure out which parts I did and which parts the attorney did himself.

I have filed probably 50 of these in my life thus far and of those, I won probably 75% of the time (as I only go to that much trouble when I feel very confident cuz making an appeal is a very HUGE hassle!). But this case I feel super confident on, and that's no BS. The Calkins case (the one I told u about sunday) is right on track here and this appellate court has no choice but to follow it.

Game over for your Internet stalker friend.

The federal judge in California will be issuing her order dismissing the case shortly for lack of jurisdiction. Your stalker will then be forced to pay all our attorneys fees.

Then we come after him.

I do love and miss you, too!!

$185,673.25 is how much the Texas case has cost so far.

Your idiot stalker friend is toast. Texas toast on account of that Calkins case I told you about.

Oh and my attorney filed notice of appeal for me in that stupid restraining order case this morning, too.

So you read the news article about the stalker faggot? He acts like a foolish drama queen to the reporter and his fake death threats. The article is on a terrorist website called Al Jazeera, not Rolling Stone. Hahahaha

So how does it feel to be HATED by everyone in your whole family? Meanwhile, I guess I am threatening and harassing your mom and brother soooo much that we all decided to go and hang out at the state fair tonight. Hahaha.

Come Tuesday we will see what happens with your Internet stalker friend in Texas. He iis fast running out of money. That Leiderman was dumb enough to get a $250,000 loan using his house as collateral back in March. But his house ain't worth much. He iis trying to finance all these lawsuits with that money it seems. Going through all his financial records is very boring and tedious. Glad someone else is doing it for us. But we will soon learn what's what.

So how is Monkey? Did it grow back all his fur yet? Are you feeling ok? How is your ankle? The dog is getting big and is a very good guard dog in training. Lol. Already doesn't like Mexicans any more then your dog Snoopy did.

Oh and did you know that your stalker friend filed copies of like 40 of your naked pictures with the federal court judge. Hahaha. What a total dumb ass! I must say these guys are getting very desperate.

Well anyways. You need to wake up. But your loss is YOUR loss. Anytime you want to talk you know I will pick up. No matter what I am your dad and I do love and miss you. Always. Forever.

Well I guess I will go threaten and harass your mother some more. She is looking at some Indian crafts some idiot is selling here and your brother wants to go on a ride.

Bye bye

That is how much we have spent to date on the Texas lawsuit against your stalker friend. His attorney is already trying to cut a deal, but it doesn't seem likely because no one here can trust that stalker creep to keep his word and stop hassling folks.

Your friend is toast and I will be laughing all the way to the bank!!

I just found out McGibney is being forced to pay a ton of money to one of the people he sued with me, a 50 year old woman named Lane Lipton. He lied to get her into court and the judge caught him. Just like she caught my lying about me.

He has to pay her attorneys and her damages. Its supposed to be confidential, but fuck it. I don't care. He is losing all his money and looks like a retard - especially after I beat his ass yesterday. Say you want to hear a recording from the hearing? Its funny as shit!!

The TX decision will come out next Wednesday. Boy will he cry then! Lol.

Wanna hear something funny as shit? Until Boppie reminded me of this, I bought an Umbrella policy when I got my inheritance from my mother for extra protection just in case along with my regular car and home insurance. It has (coincidentally enough) $1 million in coverage. It covers me from all kinds of shit, like if my dog bit some kid's face off or - and get this - or for libel, slander and other stuff just like this! It also let's me hire the attorney of my own choosing, too!

God I feel like a retard for forgetting that and spending my stock money instead. But now I just may see if I can get paid back.

Isn't that funny as shit?! I had this policy for many many years and it's been automatically paid. But I forgot all about it. Hahahahaha

Oh well. Actually I think this is better anyways. In the federal case it's me taking this clown on personally, not from an attorney like how we're doing it in Texas. This is more satisfying.

And it turns out none of this will cost me a dime!!

Hahahaha

Your stalker retard friend is lying to you. I was there. I saw everything. The case was dismissed without prejudice because Collin had other stuff to do today. The stalker clown cried and tried to get the judge to order your brother to pay fees and sanctions and get an order preventing me from being able to file any lawsuits. The judge didn't give two shits about what the stalker had to say and shut him down. Collin doesn't owe any fees. He just has to refile at a more convenient time cuz they set the hearing dates so fast.

I saw the judge myself and I got the signed order personally. The stalker creep got NOTHING. He did not win. He got no court orders and he got no money.

All he did was waste a whole bunch of time and money coming to Phoenix for nothing. I got a guy who has been following him ever since he got to town and went to the court. Pictures and everything. So we can catch him up to no good and document it all with Real Evidence. Not the fake made-up crap the stalker uses.

This retard lied to you - yet again. And you are stupid enough to believe him. I warned you over and over kid. I don't play games with this shit. Its serious business and I'm damn good at it. I have no need to lie. Why? Because when you win, it's there for the whole world to see.

Just like I won in federal court and just like I am winning in Texas

And if this faggot doesn't go away, I will be filing the lawsuit (or LOLsuit as the retards on twitter like to say) here in Texas or perhaps in arizona.

This stalker bought websites in my name, ur mom's name, ur brother's name and ur name. I want them all back. Or more of these small claims lawsuits will be filed. One after another after another. At $50 a pop we can do this all day long. Mom has already signed her's.

You must truly be desperate or really messed up to still trust this guy, an Internet weirdo stalker who runs a revenge website. How does that fit in with your claimed religious beliefs, I am curious?

You need to stay away from that guy and stop having any contact with him. He can't even save his own self. How can he save you? (not that u need saving).

This clown is an even bigger liar than you can believe. There is a reason why the federal judge - the most experienced judge possible - ruled his "evidence " inadmissible and threw him out of court. Think about it, kid. U ain't that stupid. The judge is totally impartial, yet she threw out his case.

Why?

The last time I checked ur stalker friends bank accounts he doesn't have anything close to the $200,000 in attorney fees he now owes me or $1 million in sanctions.

He has lied to you all along, I hope you now realize. That restraining order nonsense - all lies. His federal court case - all lies. The Texas court case - dead meat.

At least I am your dad. So when I lie it's for a good reason and in your best interests. When this guy lies, he's doing it for himself and he doesn't give a shit about you. You don't believe me? Just ask any one of the 20,000 or more girls who are posted on his website that he charges $499 to get their pictures removed.

Your stalker friend has been using some people to contact others as fake law enforcement, FBI and such. I am wondering if he has done the same with you. I got some photos and recordings of several possible suspects for you to check out and see / listen to in case you recognize anyone. Can I send you some stuff?

In the mean time, if you want, Google the name "Rob Holmes, investigations" from Texas. He has got several YouTube videos you can check out and see if this looks and sounds like anyone you have had contact with.

Your mom has already identified one person. Others are looking at this, too, and I want to see what you know.

Let me know.

Dad

Ps
It doesn't matter what promises or claims the stalker freak has made to you. He is fucked in Texas and will be paying big bucks in sanctions. I will also be questioning him under oath. I know he has told you its BS or I am lying. Whatever. This faggot will find out soon enough.

And you know how good I am in court, too. This ain't no lie. He is dead meat.

Do you believe it when a guy promises you he won't cum in your mouth? Then why would you believe a guy who runs a revenge porn website, who blackmail people for sport, when he promises you he will get your daddy arrested and in jail? Seriously. Are you that stupid, kid? Because I did not raise you and teach you to be a dummy.

Just because someone tells you something does not mean it's true! The more you want something to be true, the more skeptical you need to be.

You know I really kind hoped he would get that contract with Warner Brothers. But when their lawyers contacted me and wanted to hear what I and my lawyer had to say, well let's just say that after a 2 hour long meeting in Los Angeles we all left knowing there was no way in hell that James (Jimmy the Pee Boy) McGibney was ever getting any kind of TV deal. One of the female lawyers, when I showed her all the stuff I had on McGibney and the Chesterville posts, she got ridiculously angry. Her cousin was posted in Chesterville and I kiinda sorta accidentally /on purpose showed the lady her cousins Chesterville post - which I blew up to a 10 x 12 photo.

Yeah. That's how I roll.

So Jimmy pee boy never had any chance whatsoever in getting a TV show. Just like I took away his Rolling Stone cover store.

See I have been playing this game far longer and far deeper than he even knew.

Oh. Time is out and he is out of cash. My next step is getting his attorney disbarred.

I won in Texas. I was behind Neal Rauhauser the whole way and we did it and now we collect out monies!!!

Anyways there is no police involved. Its a lie.

Anyways I got to run. Brother and I got to hit the road.

Your stalker friend Mister Piss Boy has been manipulating you from the beginning. He manipulated you with his fake computer evidence. He manipulated you with his bullshit promises. He manipulated you with his boastful claims of how he was going to beat me in court. He manipulated you by lying about how he claimed your brother was in big trouble and owed him lots of money from your brother's lawsuit. He manipulated you by his false claims of cybersecurity skills. He manipulated you with his false claims of police and FBI investigations.

Of course, he will accuse me of trying to manipulate you.

But there is an important difference that should make you stop and think: He needs you. He needs you to help support his claims against me and to gain public support. Thus, he needs for you to believe and trust him.

Me. I don't need you for a motherfucking thing. If you don't believe me I could careless. That's a YP, not an MP. The only person whose life will be any better by believing me is you. My life will remain the same regardless of your beliefs.

However Mister stalker man this Piss boy has lost everything. So he can't afford to lose you. So he keeps up with the lies and false promises and his claims that 'this bad thing is gonna happen' to me and 'that bad thing is gonna happen'. But, thus far, none of those thing have come to happen.

Maybe the federal just likes me so much. Maybe all the judges on the TX court of appeals thought I'm totally cool. Or maybe they all saw through Piss Boy the stalker and saw why a lying piece of shit he is.

What do you think?

Parental relationships imprint and last a lifetime. And until you are able to reconcile yours with your dad, you will ALWAYS have troubles with your relationships with men - just like you are having now with that boy.

You seem to have some kind of imaginary idea as to what kind of relationship your mom and I have. But you have been out of the family for nine years now, and we both know that what your mom tells us over the phone or whatever often times (nearly all the time) has little basis with reality. Maybe she feels embarrassed. Maybe she feels you belittle her too much. Maybe she just doesn't want to argue with you. Whatever. Your mom is how she is and I have long ago come to accept it. She and I have known each other for nearly 40 years - long before you came along that's for sure.

And I still see you little Internet stalker jimmy the Piss boy is still making promises to you he simply cannot keep. I see the damn emails Brittany. Your dad is far smarter then you.

Soon there will be new ownership of that ViaView company and we will put an end to these stupid lawsuits and restraining order case. ViaView brought that case. The new owners if it will cancel it. Or did he not tell you that? No, of course not. He is a lying sack of shit who has brought me much fun and laughter these past months.

But it is coming to an end very soon.

The federal judge canceled the oral argument on my special motion to dismiss yesterday and her clerk requested that I submit an order for the judge to sign granting my motion.

Does that seem like I am losing the case? Lol

Oh if your mom secretly hates me so much why did she drag me out with her to pick out a new dog TOGETHER? Think about it, dummy.

Maybe I will have a little surprise for your friend Cene before she leave. I think she needs to be added to the lawsuit as a defendant. The same with Leighann. After all, they both have repeated lies about me. I can add them to the lawsuit I'm filing against Piss Boy stalker over his claims about your naked pictures once we finish up in Ft Worth.

I am willing to bet Piss man will tell you not to worry about it or that he will get attorneys for you guys. One problem with that, sweetie: he can't even pay for an attorney for his ownself! Where's he going to get the money to protect y'all?

See he missed the deadline to appeal the TX case yesterday. So the judgment is now final and me and my partners get to go take all his shit from him and monies.

Then I will be coming after you for what you did, and then Leann and now Cene. You know that not even jail can stop me from filing my lawsuits, and you know how brutal it will be.

How much money does Cene have since she lives in a trailer house with her parents in El Paso. And Leighann I know only makes around $40K as a teacher. I can smash them all to bits - which is what I do to people who have tried to tell lies about me.

Your friends will suffer for this.

Jimmy pee boy can't even save himself or his own family, how you going to expect him to "save" you guys, too? You are a traitorous bitch for what you did. But that's ok. I will deal with you and each of these friends of yours.

You know how I am and what I will do, and how terrible it will end for them. And you have only yourself to blame.

Oh, and get this, too, you stupid little girl: the kind of boy who has like EIGHT warrants out for his arrest, who has cases pending for bail jumping, resisting arrest, and vandalism (to name a few) is quite likely the kind of guy who would make videos of you guys fucking, take your pics naked, and then put them all over the Internet. And how much child support does he owe, too?? No wonder your credit is all fucked up.

And you wonder why I think his dad is spic garbage, too. After all, he raised him to be that way and to be such a shitty husband.

Oh, but I'm the bad guy who got you accepted into college and even paid for your first full year up front for you. And the guy you wanted $20,000 from to buy a new car when you wreaked yours cuz u thought it would be cool to text while driving on the interstate highway in the middle of rush hour - just after I spent nearly $2,000 to fix your fucking car, only for u to total it out.

But did I get super pissed or call u bad names? No. So when u and ur mother called me up on a three-way to strong arm me and tag-team against me, I guess that made me the bad guy.

The only one fucking up your life is you - and your stalker friend the Piss Boy. But according to a new article I read he is a dead man walking.

In any event, idiots like you will ALWAYS find some way to rationalize away evidence that contradicts your beliefs. Anyone who is dumb enough to join a religious cult is also dumb enough to swallow McGibney's load hook, line and sinker no matter how just plain ridiculous and unbelievable his lies are.

He does this shit just to fuck you up just like he does with everyone else. Or have you forgotten the irrefutable fact that he runs a revenge and blackmail website. And if it wasn't about revenge and blackmail then why else does this asshole charge people hundreds of dollars to ransome back their intimate photos and to take down the defamatory comments he makes about them?

Why else was he and that fucking jew Leiderman involved in buying websites to harass Jeff Dorrell or your mom and I, or any of the other dozen or so innocent victims of his harassment?

Oh but please don't let those inconvenient facts get in the way of your Daddy Issues. You want to hate me? Fine. But at least do it for the right reasons, okay? Get mad at me for returning that ridiculously complicated and stupid / so not fun doll house when you were little. Or for not taking you with me when I went to go watch football games. Or for leaving you on account of me going to jail.

Now that I would understand, and deserve. But not this bullshit. You know I had nothing to do with those sex videos and naked pics. Your own brother swore out a statement in which he related about you telling him and mom THREE different explanations on how that shit happened - and they all involved that spic, not me!

You only started to blame me when it became expedient for you to do so.

But it wasn't the truth, was it.

See you're no different, or any better, than I am / was. But it took me going to jail to finally realize I wasn't living the right kind of life. Shit and I used to be a federal law enforcement officer and used to work in the DA's office.

But I have only myself to blame for fucking it up.

I guess like father, like daughter, eh, kid? And that is what breaks my heart. But I will always be there for you. You just have to decide to pick up the phone and ask.

Well that's enough from me. I wrote this on and off over about 3 hours this morning. Morning for you, afternoon for me.

Mom's pissed cuz I got a Super Bowl ticket. She doesn't even like football. Here in Scottsdale there is a big NFL party tonight at the Hotel Valley Ho. Should be fun I hope.  I fly back later.

Dad

I am seeing all this online bullshit for the first time in almost a week. Its weird. All these wild dramas and feuds and such. You step away from it, back in the normal world, and you forget the weirdness of all these cast of characters.

This is just stupid. But then you should ask yourself why I spent a pile of money on one of the best criminal defense attorneys in San Jose (a guy named Daniel Jensen, whom you can Google to read all about him) instead of just showing up. Its cuz I am determined to fight this bullshit and make it all go away. So I hired an expert to handle it. And it did all go away. A judge felt that all the bullshit you and Piss boy were claiming was worth a $500 no-show bond. lol. All your fake ass tears, only $500 bond - which is the exact same amount bond is set at for parking ticket court cases. Hahahaahaahahaha

All your silly drama about being a victim's voice heard louder than a... I forgot how your line went, but I thought it was funny as shit. both your mom and I laughed at that - and you. You are a stupid, silly little girl.

Come back to the US and you will find out just how many people hate you! You won't last a week before some crazy person gets you. Your addresses are all known, posed online, and passed around to all. Cena, Leigh ann, them spics. They're all out there. So cry harder with your fake assed tears, biitch. You get all that you deserve on account of your association with this piece of shit. Now all the online crazy people want to rape you and shit and do other ridiculous things to you. lol

Oh well. Sucks to be you I guess. But it's ALL your fault and ALL your problem. You decided to jump in, so this is what you get: Internet crazy people who talk about what it will be like once they stalk you and get their hands on you and tear you to pieces.

Which is why I don't do twitter or websites or any of that other bullshit online drama. Too weird even for me.

Say one of these days soon (since this is about all over with) I can tell you the story about the REAL conspiracy behind all this stuff that pee boy doesn't even know. He suspects. But doesn't know. It is funny. You will die laughing.

So it seems that your Internet stalker friends are trying to start up a new rumor or claim: that somehow I am not allowed to fly. I hope you are not dumb enough to fall for this. Of course you are dumb, as evidenced by your membership in a lame religious cult and married to a retarded spic whose voice sounds EXACTLY like that of the Chinese dude in the Hangover movies! Seriously he sounds just like that fag.

I was in Minnesota just a few days ago. I will be going to Houston later this week.

So, yes, I can fly and even cross borders. You know I don't let those idiots do a damn thing to slow me down.

So how is your trip into the mountains? Why do two broke dick unemployed retards need a vacation anyways? Vacation from what? Sitting around watching movies on my Netflix and Hulu accounts?? Oh, yeah, that must be really tiring and difficult.

You are getting fat, too. Lay off the fries, and the dick, and go exercise more and stuff.

Feb 19th is a big day for your stalker retard. That's when it's Game On in Texas and I finish this head stomping that I started over a year ago. lol

Too bad now one gives a shit about you or your problems, except to the extent they can use them and use you. But then again, you always let boys use you, don't ya? Yeah you do.

So today is the day the court of appeals issues it's final order and we go to the trial court for the sanctions hearing to finish all this nonsense once and for all.

I am your father and nothing can ever change that. Your DNA is what it is. Running or trying to pretend otherwise is only hurting you.

The stalker Mister Piss Boy is a broken man. He came from a fucked up family. He has a fucked up background. He has lived a fucked up life. And he is a fucked up person. All of those people - noo matter who they are or who they claim to support - all these Internet people are all a bunch of messed up weirdos.

Far be it from me to throw stones here. But at least I don't live in this online Twitter / website fantasy world when people think twitter arguments actually mean something.

If I got a serious problem with someone, i'll settle it with a gun. As you know I was going to do that to that spic and his mother when you told me where they were at. But I guess you got cold feet at the last second cuz you threw my gun in the trash when you borrowed my car. But you knew what I was about to do to them, because u wanted me to and u knew i'd do it without a second's thought just to make ur problem go away. After all, that fool and his mom couldn't sign over that car title to u fast enough, eh?

So u have no problem using me, and my ability for violence, when it suits your purposes. I don't care. I'm ur dad. That's part of my job and I do not mind it one bit. Ur my daughter. So there. If I am going to take someone's life what better reason than that it was done for my daughter, right?

But these Internet people are all just weird and this whole thing has been amazing stupid. Its really opened my eyes up. I had no idea that such a world existed full of drama queens who take themselves and their stupid twitter threats and constant police threats and shit soooo fucking seriously.

I guess maybe people in their world get scared of things like tweets and doxing and police threats. So they must have thought that the same tactics would work on me. But I'm not scared of stuff like that.

I don't give a shit about the police, courts, tweets or any of that crap. I guess you must not have told them that or, more likely, they did not want to believe you. I've been shot at, stabbed, beat up and I have shot others, stabbed others and beat on others. A dozen times or more I have done things or been in situations where I should have died, where I would have died, if I wasn't lucky or good or both. Either in the military or prison or even underwater, or racing motorcycles.

McGibney and his crew consist of a bunch of fucked up, broke dick losers. So they automatically assume that everyone else must be like them. I'm not. I'm fucked up, but for entirely different reasons.

But that's okay. It doesn't matter. You are my daughter and that is all that matters to Me. You tell me that I shouldn't worry about you or concern myself with your life. But you know what? That's my job. Its a job I accepted responsibility for the moment you were conceived. Its not like I had a choice. Its not like I can walk away or quit. That's just part of me being your dad. And the same goes for your brother. Don't think that it doesn't!

So I do worry about you and I do concern myself with your life. And when you have your own children you will be the same way. Don't think that you won't cuz u will. You know how I know? Yeah, that's right.

Anyways I will be going overseas next week. My dad is out in the pacific on a boat and I am going to met him for a bit. I can change my route back and see u for a day or two if u want. Its up to you.

The very fact that I crushed this clown and his stupid website and blackmail business like a bug ought to show you just how full of shit he was. All his claims, all his so called "evidence ", all his promises to you and others, all swept away by little old me with so very little effort on my part. No dramatic trial. No jury verdict - hell it never even got that far. Whenever his claims were tested in court by actual lawyers (or by me), his claims were all rejected and thrown out.

He is a Deadman only he doesn't realize it yet. Soon it will be for real and this will all fade away into nothingness.

I miss you very much Brittany. And I love you even more. Always. Forever.

Dad

Well I hope you are happy Brittany. Your cyber-stalker friend has been sending your brother death threats and is harassing him online with more of his usual defamatory bullshit.

I guess McGibney thinks that stalking and harassing your mom and brother are going to help him win his lawsuits. The silly thing is that it doesn't really matter what this guy says. Even if what he claims were true, no one is listening to him anymore. He has lost ALL credibility.

It's like he has a death wish for himself and his family. He faces the judge in Texas next Thursday and he just cannot control his behavior.

Dad

Ps
Your mom and brother hate you. So I hope you are happy.

Oh this is getting to the fun stuff now. Next Thursday I will be in Houston sitting in a lawyer's office listening in while a court hearing takes place that will spell the end of that stalker piece of garbage.

Now he spends all day raging on twitter and his stupid website trying to harass your brother and mom. Which is totally funny! You know how your mom is and just exactly what kind of reaction this will get from her.

I will send you some pictures from our trip to Disney Land later. The happiest place on earth, right? Remember your first trip to Disney?

It will be interesting to see just how well Piss Boy stalker's answers to the discovery questions matches up with the info we have already gathered. One lie and he is toast. Of course a retarded lunatic drug addict tells lies all the time, right?

Did mom talk to you yet? She was supposed to call you and fill you in.

Funny how McPiss Boy seems to think that information he got from your mom at the point of a gun is supposed to be truthful and now that he has found out differently he goes into a nerd rage. He thought he knew all about me. But I guess not. Anyways its not like she knows where all the bodies are buried.

March 26th will be a happy day. Not so happy for him. Oh well.

Dad

Hahahahaahha.

What happened today is something that I have never seen nor heard of before in my life in all my years of being in a courtroom.

The judge SCREAMED at Piss Boy's attorney today because he would not shut up when the judge was trying to talk. So the judge screamed and slammed the phone down.

At first we thought (jeff and i) that there was a connection problem. But the judge's secretary Becky called us back a few minutes later and told Jeff's secretary that the judge is ordering Evan Stone (mcPiss boy's attorney) to personally appear and we will all be going to Ft Worth on a date to be determined. Not me, but Jeff will.

the judge said that this case is over with all but the amount for sanctions and he is absolutely furious (the judge's secretary 's words, not mine) but he is furious with Stone and McGibney.

So the fun continues.

Oh, and guess what, Collin is going to be filing a federal lawsuit against McGibney and the ViaView board members for RICO violations, trademark violations, defamation and copyright violations. Of course I will do the papers for him. But his name will be on the lawsuit, which we will file in a few weeks.

I have a recording of the whole thing and it is soooo funny. This Stone guy is a total retard and he sounds sooo ridiculous. And the judge's scream is like nothing I ever heard before. Jeff and I thought it was like he'd been shot or something. It was that loud and shrill.

Wow.

Just wow.

Oh and guess what. A number of people are posting death threats about you online and your El Paso friends. Not good that so many people want to murder you. But you picked the wrong team. lol

Hi. So I guess you are getting ready for your big memorial evening events. Will you be putting on a skit like you did last year? How many people do you think will show up?

The stalker boy has 2 days to file his discovery responses. The judge's secretary called our TX attorney today and said that Judge Cosby wants to know if any problems come up and if he doesn't respond fully that we should let the judge know. I thought that was weird as most judges don't pay that close attention to their cases. But apparently he is ready to rule and is upset that those fools and their idiot attorney.

This has been fun. A headache at times. But overall a good experience and mostly fun. I like doing new things like this and making new law is always pretty cool.

I hope that one day you will wake up and realize what you have done and how so much time has been irrevocably lost as a result.

Think about that this weekend when you are at your service.

I do love and miss you, as always.

Dad

Does McPiss Boy really share with you the court papers like you said? I wonder if he shows you real papers or real FAKE papers.

Anyways this is what will get me the dismissal of not just the federal lawsuit but his stupid restraining order case, too. Plus costs and sanctions. Look at the cases I cited herein. I bet you will see the judge use the exact same ones in the dismissal order - just like how those judges here in Texas used my words in the appellate case when they ruled in our favor.

Guess my attorney is just better than his (and not a drug addict, either).

If your friend has not figured it out by now I am not afraid of him. He cannot intimidate me. I have beaten him and destroyed his stupid website and company. His police threats do not scare me. Why else do you think I flew 1500 miles to sit in a courtroom for 15 minutes of lawyers talking bullshit? Did I seem afraid to walk in there? Do I seem afraid now?

Am I done with Piss Boy and his attorney? Not by a long shot! lol

The Judge, a guy named Don Cosby, had me brought back into his office. I spent the last 45 minutes raising hell with the police and sheriff's deputies about McGibney and his attorney's stupid stunt claiming I had arrest warrants.

I then went back upstairs to complain to the judge's clerk. The judge himself came out and asked me to come in and talk to him. We spoke for about 15 minutes. I just left now. He apologized and said how very sorry he was. He said McGibney 's claims against me are all dismissed and they cannot be brought back. He said the only thing left was sanctions and our side's attorneys fees.

I recorded him as he said this as I wasn't sure if he was gonna screw with me. But he is a very nice guy. He used to live in an orphanage as a child and now he helps run a local shelter for abused kids. He is very upset by this case I could tell.

Your stalker friend has lied to you over and over. There is no police investigation. We now see proof. And there is no warrants. We now see proof.

You were lied to by this man.

And I will make him pay.

You are next. A lot of people will try to hurt you when you come back. You were warned to stay away from those people. You will suffer.

Why are you so important to me? Why won't I forget about you?

Your closest friends are strangers. You keep your distance. You understand that tight bonds can make you vulnerable. So you are careful not to have any. Which is why you are so conflicted about me. You need me and you hate that about yourself because it makes you vulnerable.

But I am your dad. So of course you need me. Just as I need you. You are as much a part of me as your brother is. And I love you.

I would hope that by now you will have realized what a lying sack of shit this stalker faggot is. What happened in Texas is absolute and unequivocal. Its all over but the sanctions.

And because of that stupid stunt his attorney Stone pulled on Tuesday, we are going to up our demands to $2 million dollars. Yep.

This is going to be a gas!! If it wasn't fun I wouldn't be doing this. Its not like this piece of shit has $2 Million. He spent his last bits of money on this nitwit in Texas.

Your mom and I are sitting here watching The Blacklist on Netflix. I have never seen it before. I think I like it.

Why do you think she and I are sitting here together at 1am on a Friday night, at her place, watching TV together?

Your mom made a very interesting observation today: as this case has gone on, the quality of Mc Piss Boy's legal representation has steadily worsened. While mine has stayed the same. (in my opinion, the same high quality, but that is not the point. )

My belief is that the quality of his attorneys is in direct relation to his bank account. He has yet to do anything that has affected the amount of monies I have access to. But can the same be said about what I have done (allegedly) to him? lol

Texas is where it counts. Texas has always been the key. That's why as soon as he filed his stupid lawsuit we hit the ground running and running hard.

Thus, Game Over. I win. He loses. 100% VERIFIED.

Anyways this has nothing to do with you. Not anymore. Not at all, really. You were just a tool Piss Boy thought he could use against me. He uses lots of people like you. You weren't the first. But I could make sure you were the last.

Try to think of your mom Sunday and remember that she and I both love you so very, very much.

Always. Forever.

Daddy

I can only lead you to the truth. I cannot make you believe it.

By now I am guessing that you have heard the audio. So you know how things are and you know I spoke the truth to you.

It's all over with for the Piss Boy who was written about in Al Jazerra website about how he loved to get peed on as a child. I think the next article about him will be even more interesting. In fact, I would count on it.

But that has nothing to do with us., with you and your dad.

You know the problem with drawing lines in the sand? With a breath of air they disappear.

You may not like me. And you may not understand how or why I do what I do. That is because you are not yet a parent. When you are, you will do so.

I am not going to beg you to allow me the privilege of helping you. You can either take it or not. Its your life and you're a big girl, right?

So yet another Mother's Day has passed and you still failed to contact your mom. But it's not like she hasn't got used to it and has gotten over all the hurt you cause. Right?

So please stop asking her for money for your stupid cat. Nobody gives a shit about it.

How many times have you been to Disney? I am taking brother shortly and was trying to remember. I think it's 3. Two to the world and one to the land. But then you went on a Disney Ship didn't you? I can't remember.

I was reading your diary. Was cleaning out a drawer looking for old boxes of ammo to go shoot up when I found it. Several years ago, when you ran off, your mom put ALL of your stuff out in the trash. I saved your scrapbooks, some clothes, pictures, your treasures, diary, and such. I know that someday you will want this stuff and you would be sad if it was gone.

You know how your mom gets.

I wish I hadn't slept nearly the whole morning away. I missed all the nerd rage online, not to mention calls from my attorney telling me the court was canceled. I went to bed at around 9pm and shut my phone off to let it charge since I knew I'd be on a plane most all day. I was sleeping in your room cuz mom was gonna take me to the airport like usual and she woke me up and saw what I missed.

I got up all excited and ready to go and it was all for nothing. We got what we wanted anyways. This stalker boy was afraid I'd post his stuff all over the Internet and embarrass him. I guess in the world he lives in twitter is everything. I could care less about those Internet faggots. Who they cheer for or boo makes no difference to me.

But to Piss Boy this is his World. How weird. How sad. I don't need to know how much he spends on toilet paper. Its not relevant to how much he will have to pay in sanctions. I don't care about that those stuff. Its all extraneous noise. I only need two numbers.

Funny thing is I already got much of his banking info and we got all of his tax info. I'm just curious to see if he will lie and send us bogus stuff.

He keeps thinking this is some other kind of game than what it really is. He has such repeatedly bad quality attorneys. Its really quite sad at how terribly he has been taken advantage of and screwed over by people whom he is supposed to be able to trust.

But because it's him, Mr Pee Pants, I just laugh and carry on with what I got to do.

He keeps declaring he is the winner and we're losing, only we don't know it yet. What a silly man. Its not even funny anymore. Its stupid and pointless.

Anyways I hope you are doing well. I miss you very much Brittany, and love you even more.

Dad

Your Internet stalker friend is a dumb motherfucking nigger thinking that (1) I am not involved in the Texas case and (2) that I won't be getting anything out of it.

You ought to refer this cocksucker to Texas Property Code section 12.014 if he has any questions about who just might or might not have any ownership interest in the Texas case.

It's a trick I first pulled about 15 years ago when I was in prison. I traded a guy a roll of stamps and 10 MoonPies for his claim in a lawsuit against a prison guard, which I then used to strong arm the warden into giving me a better cell (i.e. one without any niggers or spics within smelling distance) and a new remote for my TV.

This dumb ass was fucked the moment he and John Morgan set ink to paper on this little scheme.

And you're a stupid cunt if you still keep believing their nonsense about how the FBI is going to arrest me "when I least expect it.". I seriously cannot believe you said those exact words to your mom. You sound like you have been hanging around that lible blog, the BV Files, for too long. One of Piss Boy's friends (his only one it seems) goes by the name Catty Idiot, and he is always claiming (every Friday it seems) that the FBI is going to arrest me "when I least expect it."

Anyways, I hope this shows you that I really am in control here in Texas and have been from the get-go. 100% VERIFIED!

Dad

The BV Files is now at: ViaViewFiles.net.

This is why your Internet stalker friend is a dead man. I am betting he won't show up in Texas. But I will be there, as always.

There is an old saying: Fool me once, shame on you. Fool me twice, shame on me. How many times will you let this man fool you? Its like a guy who constantly promises not to cum in your mouth, but does so anyways. Would you let such a man inside you again?

How many promises / claims has he made to you about this federal lawsuit and the Texas case? Yet not one of them has come true, has it?

But everything your own dad told you about what would happen here has come true, hasn't it?

Ask yourself, why is it that a federal court judge took my side against McPissBoy's and why did all those judges on the Texas Court of Appeals rule in my favor? Aren't I supposed to be the most horrible person on the planet? Aren't I supposed to be the Bad Man and an evil person?

Yet time and time again all of these judges have ruled in my favor in very big ways.

I am not just winning. I have won.

Why is that?

Dad

Ps

I had a wonderful trip! I am sure glad that none of those pesky arrest warrants and super secret FBI investigations interfered with my travels. Guess this faggot was also lying about that stuff, too, eh?

So where is my money, bitch?!

You claim for months that this stalker faggot is a millionaire. But now you tell your mom Friday that he is broke and has no money.

So what's the deal, bitch? Where's my money???

I'm supposed to be getting rich cuz of these lawsuits against the Piss Boy right?

Hahahahahahaha. Like I didn't know that when I saw his first credit report over a year ago.

Yet you still cling to the belief of mysterious FBI investigations and imminent arrests when I least expect it. Why?

This man has lied to you about EVERYTHING, Brittany. He lied to you over and over about this federal court case and that restraining order case. An 80 brief will be filed - in person - Monday morning in San Jose by me. And now that case will be demolished, too.

In Texas, we just won yet another victory. On Friday the Texas Supreme Court threw out an appeal filed by McGibney's attorney in a lawsuit that he tried to file against my attorney.

Everything this stalker retard has done has not turned out the way he claimed it would. So why do you think this new set of claims will be any different?

On another note, you cannot know just how hard I laughed when your mom told me a few weeks ago about your friend in El Paso, the red headed bitch who drew you back into that cult. I wanted a chance to murder her, at some point. But it seems that fate has conspired against me, right? So Jehovah stricks her down with a virulent disease, lost her job, and lost her house. And is in constant pain and will (hopefully and likely) die soon.

It doesn't get any funnier than that, eh? Hahahahaahha

Yeah, I guess your Jehovah God really loved her a whole bunch - not! Am I right?

Guess this explains your issues, too.

You are living the wrong kind of life. People post threats online of wanting to kidnap and rape you to death once you come back. So many, many people hate you, kid. It is difficult for me to read all this hate being directed towards you, but not surprising I guess.

I can confirm that there is a pile of lawsuits and other legal papers with your name on them just waiting for you to step off a plane (or you still going with that plan to sail on a cargo ship? Haha). You act like it's no big deal. Just ask the Piss boy.

I came here to LA this weekend for a golf match but it's been nothing but rain. Been staying at the hotel you and I stay at. I wish you were here. I miss you so very much.

Love dad

Well your friend Piss Boy is going to find out Monday that he and that jew leiderman have bite off far more than they can chew.

There is a reason why I had three lawyers working until 7pm Thursday and why we don't have to do anything today.

Monday won't be like he thinks or has promised you. But since when have ANY of his lawsuit promises / claims ever turned out like he has promised, right?

Oh and the folks at Piss Boy's work place are steaming mad. Such embarrassment he has brought them. Oh well. Not my problem.

I dipped into my trust fund a bit to pay for all this shit. But it's been worth it. Besides, it's not like this little bit of money will be missed. One good day on the stock market and it will all come back anyways.

Have you seen the price of oil? All them oil leases my dad owns on Eagle Ford are barely producing. But some traders think that as companies get more efficient in their production that things will pick up in early 2016. Whatever.

Do you remember when I took you to see them? I think it was your first or second summer with me. I can't remember which.

How is you toe?

One thing you can't skimp on is having the best doctor you can afford, just like the best lawyer you can afford. This is why Piss Boy stalker punk has been losing over and over and over in court. Cuz I spend money when necessary to get the best I can afford.

Thanks to my family, I can afford a lot.

What do you think I will be doing and where at come Monday? Wouldn't it be funny if I was there in person?

Your stalker friend will get hammered and I told you all along how this would end up.

But Texas is where it counts. Texas has always been the key, as I told you.

Dad

Ps

I went on a hunting trip today. I never shot at animals before. Only people. Kinda dumb actually. People are at least a bit of a challenge. But pulling the trigger and killing something don't mean all that much to me anyways whether it be a person or an animal. Which is kinda sad in a way. But it is what it is. You get that way when you have done something often enough.

Dumb PissBoy doesn't know shit about my past (or present, for that matter) like he likes to claim.

What a long day!! I was in Houston this morning for a meeting with the attorney and staff in Houston. He offered to do it by phone, but it's better for these things to be done in person. The sanctions motion will be filed Wednesday, I believe.

This is sooo very, very exciting kid! The final nail in this asshole's coffin has been struck.

Hahaahhahaaahaahah

Our sanctions motion will be filed any minute now. Asking for $1 million like I told you, and just about $300,000 in attorneys fees.

Two trips to Houston in the past week to hammer this shit out, along with meeting the State Bar people and the folks in the local District Attorney's office.

But now it appears that everything is done. And this internet stalker punk is toast.

Does anyone anywhere on the planet think that the judge won't award me / us the full measure of our attorneys fees at the very least?

McStupid can't even afford a fraction of $300,000. And I will get to beat him over the head with a judgment for years and years and years.

Amen.

Lol

I told you over a year ago how this shit would turn out, didn't i?

$292,025.89 in attorneys fees is what he is gonna owe me.

22 pages of horrific vexatious litigation just hit the courthouse about 30 minutes ago. Guess who got to press the "file" button to send it on its way?

Hahaahhahaahahahaha

You think McPissBoy has that kinda money available?

The sanctions motion is being redone. I'm not happy with it so a new one will be filed shortly. It will be even more horrific than before.

That internet stalker, the Piss Boy, seems to think he will be able to pull a rabbit out of a hat come Sept 24th. But without some means of being able to force me to show up - which ain't gonna happen - it's all academic. Stupid stupid stupid.

But this is what having a drug addict for an attorney gets you.

Dad

I just saw and approved what is the final draft on our $1 million sanctions motion. It should be filed Monday.

Oh and I finally convinced your mom to agree to testify via telephone for court in San Jose this Thursday regarding the Piss Boy's illegal telephone recordings of her. Recall I told you it is a felony to record a phone call in California unless you have the other person's permission. That is why she signed the affidavit. But now I convinced her to testify in person after my attorney gets done putting Piss Boy on the witness stand grilling him.

This idiot is still trying to figure out about me and your mom being in Boston at the FBI. Now he has this drug addict who is also a private eye sending out stupid emails trying to be all scary and such. Like he thinks my dad reads his own email. The guy gets about 500 emails a day from all kinds of kooks and weirdos. That is why he has a staff and secretaries for. That's what being an owner (even a part owner) of a large group of newspapers is all about. But whatever.

These people are all weird. I will be shocked if someone does not murder you should you come home. You are on the radar of both groups of people and everyone hates you and wants to use you in some form of fashion.

Good luck trying to find, let alone keep, a job. See you don't have the advantage of having a rich father with a family trust fund. You were written out of that shit years ago, dude, when you went off your meds and did crazy shit. You think I am going to leave you in a trust fund with access to several million dollars? That cash would be gone in a few months and you would be dead or homeless. Might has well give you a bottle of your favorite vodka and a loaded gun with one bullet. And you know how that would turn out.

You have been given plenty of opportunities to get your shit together and turn your life around. So whatever dude. In any event you know that if you call, I will always pick up. Others may have given up on you. But I am your dad and I still have hope for you.

I miss you and love you.

Dad

Asunto: where is dad?

Hey fool! Guess where daddy is? Poor little Piss Boy will be crying his eyes out in court come Monday morning. But I will be playing golf here in Europe while taking one of those river tours that my dad always goes on. You are an idiot for trusting a drug addict and a liar. Whatever. That fool made yet another FALSE police report against me, this time claiming I had machine guns and was gonna kill him. Guess he thinks the police forget the last four FALSE police reporters he made about me. Or the FALSE police reports against James Duffy, in which McStupid told the FBI that Duffy had a bunch of dead bodies in his backyard. Or the SWATting nonsense with Neal Rauhauser. Or the dead threat claims that all turned out to be made by himself for publicity purposes. McGibney lies to you. He lies to the police about FAKE death threats, dead bodies and, now, nonexistant machine guns. Then there are the lawsuits he has lost to me. In Texas we will get a million dollars in sanctions on Pee Boy. Unfortunately, he does not have any monies. I hope nobody murders him or his family because I want to be able to garnish his wages for the rest of his life. Well i am about to go to bed so I will see ya later, fool!

Subject: hiding out

It is amazing to see just how stupid you are. Did you really think that it was your mom sending you the text messages on Whats App? silly girl. THAT WAS ME DUMMY! You think it is that hard to write like your mom?

McStupid seems to think that this shows that your mother is "finally coming around" to believing that those sex videos of you were made by me, with a hidden camera. hahaha Here is a clue: No, she absolutely does not believe that. She never believed that. Why is that? Because she has two eyes and can see for herself you standing in front of the camera, posing and stuff like this. Despite what you think, your mom is not an idiot.

She and I are still very close. We have been friends for almost 40 years. I even came back to Phoenix to take her out on her birthday to dinner and a comedy play downtown. She had a wonderful time!

I am curious, though, why the Piss Boy keeps going on and on about that. Is he sexually obsessed with me and the idea of father-daughter sex? What a very strange little man to be worrying about the family of people whom he does not know and never met.

For some reason he thinks that people, other people, actually give a shit about you and me and our relationship, or that anyone would believe anything that comes out of his mouth or posted on his website.

Do you really believe that shit he tells you about me supposedly being in "hiding from the cops"? Just curious, but what would I be in hiding for? My home address is right on my driver's license. Just because your mom won't tell you were I live at (despite your repeated questioning of her) does not mean that I am in "hiding" (whatever that is supposed to mean).

Are the police soooo lazy and incompetent - and that your dad is such a master criminal - that I cannot be easily found? I get on and off airplanes at least once a month. I was in Europe just about two weeks ago and came back and forth through the border checkpoints. I voted in the election here in Texas just last week. I even got pulled over for speeding a few months ago in California (let go w/ a warning!).

I was back home in Minnesota a few days ago. Check out this cheap gas I found.

This asshole has been claiming for two years now that there is a super secret FBI / NSA / CIA and police investigations. Like cops all over the world care soooo much about your naked sex pictures that they are just falling all over themselves to bring me to justice. hahahaha Those pictures and videos are 6 or 7 years old and we both know who is responsible for them - that filthy spic you were married to. Or him crying about how I supposedly have all these guns and shit, like that is supposed to be illegal where I am at. Its not.

Now that faggot McPissBoy is facing $1,300,000 in court sanctions in Texas. You can see the attached court paper showing where this dumb ass decided to claim he hacked into the email accounts of my attorney in Texas. His attorney has been trying sooo hard to get an in-person hearing on the motion in front of the judge in Fort Worth but the judge shut him down. I actually wanted a live hearing in court so I could be there in person laughing my ass off. Its only a couple of hours drive and it would be soooo funny to see.

We got Piss Boy on the run in that stupid California case, too. Did you know that my attorney gets paid over $250,000 a year from the county? His office has a budget of $7 million and a large pool of attorneys to draw upon, as well as police investigators of their own.

The judge has been removed from the case. You can read it yourself in the attached court document. A final ruling is expected any day now. That filthy jew Leiderman tried to file a response opposing my request. But the court threw it out because Jimmy boy had no money to pay the filing fees. The jew is crying about how I am driving up their court costs. Dummy. i am just getting warmed up. I got seven more writ petitions all typed up and ready to go if necessary. But since the judge has been removed, the case starts all over fresh from the beginning with their being no restraining order. It all will start over. Why? Because the law in California is, if a judge has been removed from a case due to being disqualified, ALL of that judge's rulings are automatically voided out. Why is that? Because if the judge is disqualified, it calls into question the legitimacy of all of his previous decisions before. I am the one entitled to a Constitutional right to a fair trial - not the Piss Boy.

How many times does someone have to lie to you before you finally figure out that they are a liar and cannot be trusted? From the very beginning of this nonsense, almost two years ago, I told you EXACTLY how all of this would play out. While I might have been a little off on some of the details, the over all theme has been spot on. I told you that I would win in Texas, and how it would happen. I told you I would win in the federal court case. I even went so far as to describe my strategy to you in painful detail all in advance (cuz I know Piss Boy reads your emails). Why did I do that? Because I want everyone to know that I cannot be stopped. That what is happening here is as inexorable as an avalanche, and just as unstoppable.

And now I have told you how the California case will play out.

In any event, come December 4th (or thereabouts), ViaView will be under totally new ownership. Once ViaView is taken over (by court order in Texas), the San Jose case will come part. Only an authorized representative of ViaView is allowed to prosecute that restraining order case. Once the ownership of ViaView is transferred to our side, the McGibney and Leiderman lose their ability to litigate that case. So even if the California court of appeals does not see things my way (unlikely, but possible), I still have the ability to shut this all down.

So what happens to you, daughter of mine? Well that is for you to decide. But a great many people want to see you dead. Your personal info (like social security number and such) has been posted online. People will be gunning for you - and with good reason. McBitchney has amassed a lot of enemies. Now his enemies are your enemies. You will never be safe.

You have been a very stupid little girl, Brittany. That surprises me, and disappoints me a great deal. You were not always so stupid. Or at least you did not seem so to me. But I guess drugs, alcohol and mental illness can change a person in unexpected ways.

Well, I better go back into hiding.

But no matter what, in jail, out of jail, in hiding, not hiding, in a box, with a fox, or on a boat, with a goat - I am still your father and I do love you very very much, Dad I Am. Always. Forever.

daddy

McGibney the piss boy always falls into the same routine. He loses another battle, he slinks off into his dark, slimy hole, he takes down his Twitter account (unless it gets suspended…again) and he talks behind the scenes with his scant few remaining supporters.

He'll assure them that everything is under control. He didn't really lose. There's a plan. There's a surprise on the horizon. He'll tell them to just wait and see... and they believe him because they have limited attention spans and low IQ's.

In a weekend or two, he'll get messed up on drugs or alcohol or both… he'll open his Twitter account back up. He'll post threats and tough guy "We are the Champions" kind of stuff. He'll get a couple retweets and that will make his ego feel a little better. At some point he'll sober up due to time restrictions or simply running out of his supply of drugs and/or alcohol… he'll lock up his account. He'll clean up the messy tweets as though a record of them doesn't already exist.

And we all know he will be back to repeat the process. Frankly, it's boring. It's predictable. It's old.

You like to think that your mother is a stupid woman. But she has her own mind and can see what everyone else sees - everyone but you and that last remaining support of Piss Boy, the guy who calls himself "Catty Idiot" (what a gay ass name).

What have you been taught about jews all of your life? In fact, never mind what I have said - what does your own religion teach you about jews? NEVER TRUST A JEW. It says that in your own Watch Tower magazines over and over and over, right? Leiderman is a jew; therefore, you cannot trust him.

What something you can trust? Trust these pictures here. Why would your dad be inside the Boston FBI office? And why would your mom have been there, too? Do you wish to see the hotel records, plane tickets, and photos??

See Piss Boy likes to play his little internet games. But I don't play that way.

He cries on and on about me and guns and ammo and shit like that, like we are all supposed to care. he claims I am a "horrible person" who does bad things to people. But what does your own Bible say to you, Brittany?

Why, then, do you look at the straw in your brother's eye but do not notice the rafter in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, 'Allow me to remove the straw from your eye,' when look! a rafter is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the rafter from your own eye, and then you will see clearly how to remove the straw from your brother's eye.

You think I don't pay attention to the things you say or try to teach? Just because I think you say ridiculous things and talk out of the side of your head does not mean that I am not listening to every word you say, kid.

Like what you say to your mother. You ask why she is with me? You seem to think that she is making a choice between you versus me. But that is not it at all. You have nothing to do with this crap other than as a tool to be used by one side or the other. Your mom has made the choice to stand with me against McPiss Boy. The same with your brother.

Listening to you speak its like I am hearing a person who is just totally out of touch with reality. You speak in 'baby talk' pretending your cat is talking to your mom (calling her "grandmother') and you act like everything is okay between you and her and that your own brother doesn't really hate you or that you are in the middle of a huge fight with your own dad. Its like your mind is just completely bent and you live in some imaginary place. You sit around all day long watching fucking cartoons. And don't tell me you don't because I can fucking tell whenever I go onto my Netflix and I see you have been on it, it shows me what you have been watching. Fucking cartoons and shit all day long, dude. I'm like "what the fuck". You are almost thirty years old - an old woman, yet you watch fucking cartoons all day long sitting on your ass talking baby talk to your stupid cats. Occasionally you will go outside and wander around the city hassling folks with your bullshit religious crap or hang out at the branch office pulling weeds in the garden and shit.

And then you send your mother a text message saying "Where is my $50! I need you to deposit my money right away." And I shake my head and wonder just what planet you are living on. Your mom asks me if it is okay for her to send you some money and I tell her "Its your fucking money, I don't care. Just don't ask me for any money when you run out before you get your next pay check."

See the nice thing about her being an ex-wife is that (1) its not my problem when she runs out of money, (2) I can get up and leave her place whenever I get tired of being around her and not feel bad about leaving, (3) we can have fun doing stuff together and then, after wards, go our separate ways like its no big deal.

We are far better friends now then we were husband and wife. And that makes things better for Collin, too. It could have made things much better for you, too.

Its like you have noooooo idea just how sad I feel for you, Brittany. You think I don't know about the group you belong to and constantly wonder why you belong? The JW denomination is autocratically led by an all-male religious leadership that maintains discipline, demands obedience, compels commitment, forbids independent thinking, and insists on conformity. Those who violate communal belief and behavioral norms risk “disfellowship” and “shunning.” So why would you subject yourself to such dogma and strict doctrine? My personal feeling is that this gives you some kind of comforting illusion that your environment is stable and knowable, and that therefore you are safe within it. Just as important, it makes you feel informed, intelligent, and powerful.

Most people dislike doubt and not knowing what is going on or what their place in the world is. Uncertainty leaves us stranded in a universe that is too big, too open, too ill-defined. Facing our own private uncertainty can compel us to face the existence of uncertainty in general – the unconsoling fact that nothing in the world can be perfectly known by any mere mortal, and that therefore we can’t shield ourselves and our loved ones from error, accident, and disaster.

But life is filled with uncertainty. Take what happened in Paris yesterday as an example. When I got out of my car I was at a golf course in Scottsdale (the Biltmore, for those of you at home keeping score, its also where I am a golf membership at and it is close to where I live). The last thing I do is I listen to the news for the stock market reports so I can see how my stocks are doing. A few hours later when I go home I turn on my radio to hear that hundreds of dead in Paris. While I was out in the beautiful sunshine smacking golf balls around people were being murdered by the dozens in Paris.

Just a few weeks ago I was in Paris. I have been there probably eight or nine times throughout my life. Its a very big city with a large, seemingly efficient police force. And yet this happened.

Or like what happened to your friend Leigh Ann.

Sometimes shit just happens and that is the way it is. Ask your grandmother.

And ask yourself this final thing: How has anything this faggot has done helped to improve your life one single bit? Has what he has done helped to improve your relationship with your mother? Has it helped with your relationship with your brother? Or anyone else in your family?

And ask yourself, has he been able to do a single thing to stop me or change me from doing what I do? (like it's his "job" to stop or change people, eh?)

Destroying this man and his stupid internet business has been a great deal of fun for me. It's like playing a chess match - moves and counter-moves. It has provided me with a lot of entertainment when I am bored, like now when I am sitting on an airplane typing you this message on my laptop from 38,000 feet). But how this game will play out is no secret to me. I have been doing this kind of thing for over 25 years and I am god damn good at it. He never saw it coming, and there is not a damn thing he can do to stop it. To be honest, he really destroyed himself with all the dumb ass things that he has done.

And he is still crying and trying to unravel just how it is that I am financing and behind the Texas case. You want to hear a funny story? It was originally started as a trap to get at a man named John Morgan and to try to goad him into filing a lawsuit against me. It worked amazingly well.

Now the final part will be, once we get our judgment for sanctions in Texas, I will then use it to file a lien against Leiderman to fuck up his credit and his property records. I can do that from here in Texas and it will cost him many thousands of dollars to try to unravel the mess that I will cause him with the filing of liens against him. He will have to hire a local attorney here to try to fix it. But my claim against him is a claim against ViaView and since he is the attorney for ViaView i will spin that into a claim against him. Genius, eh?

Here are some pictures of me. I got to cover the face up cuz them niggers will try to post them on their websites. But you can see that it is me and you can see all the weight that I lost. I am in the best shape of my life right now - seriously. Judging by the pictures that I have seen of you, you probably weigh more than I do - lol!
